

Route ± 2 hours

Departure from 't Zwaantje, at the end of the canal left. Pay attention! Give way to the boats coming from the right. Go straight on until you arrive at the lake. Pay attention! Do not sail between the wooden pawls in the lake, here are fishing nets. Keep on the right sight of the lake.

Take the canal at pawl 5 to the right to return to the village. At the end of this canal turn right. Pay attention! Give way to the boats coming from the left.

Just past the church turn to the left; at the end of this canal you are back at the point of departure.

Route ± 3 hours

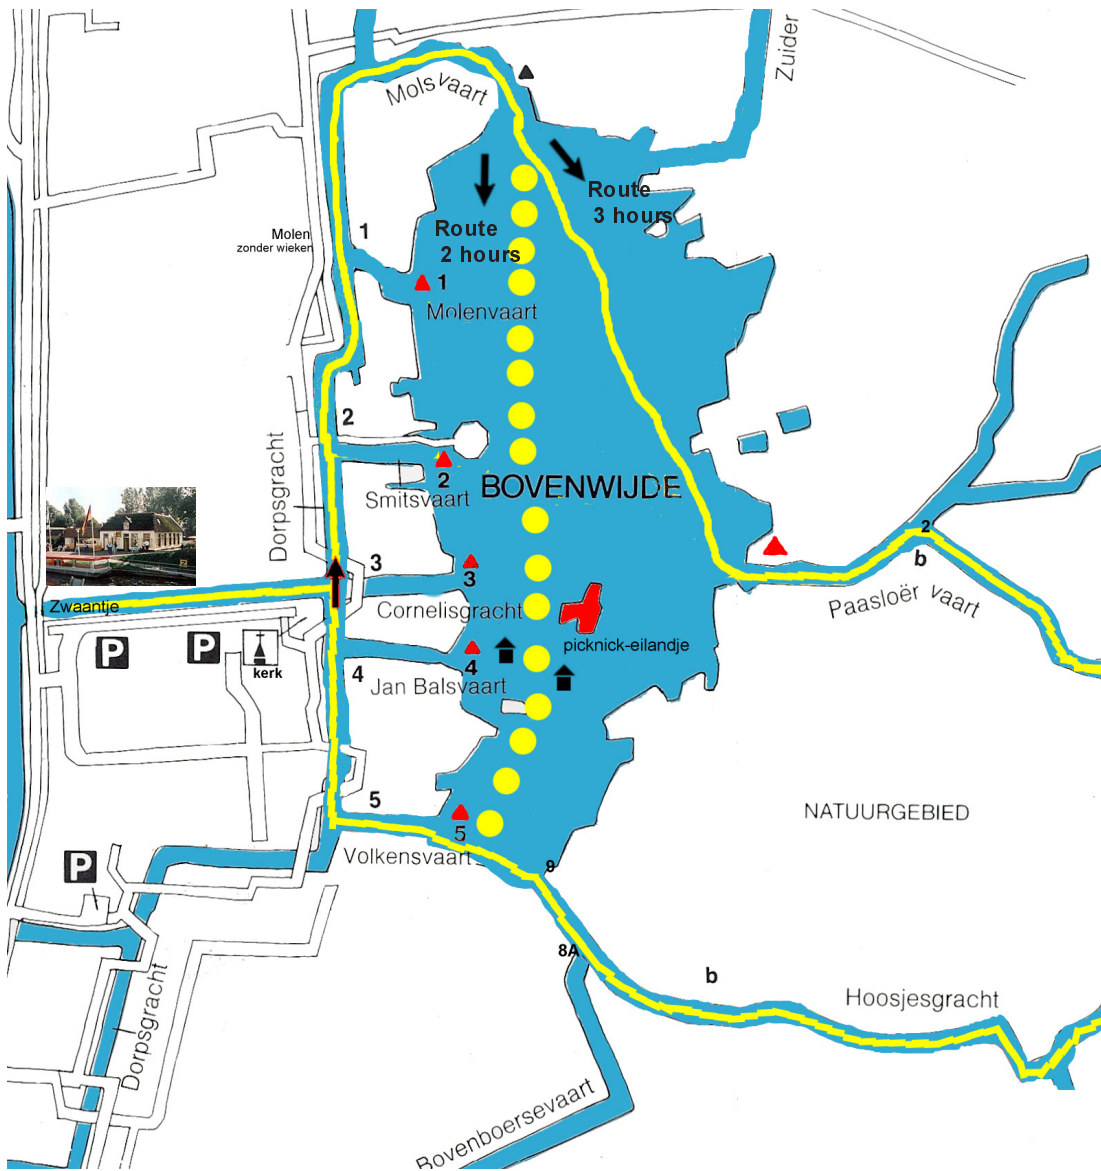

Follow the route of 2 hours until the lake. Cross al over the lake, keep at the left of the lake. Take at your left the "Paasloërvaart" this exit is marked by a pawl with an open red triangle, at your rightsight you see a little isle and a sign of "de verenigde natuurmonumenten". In this area it is forbidden to anchor. Do not sail to close at the side of the water to prevent getting stuck in the reed. Sail till canoe pawl 2, go right and follow the yellow arrows.

At canoe pawl 3 follow the bending of the water to the left. At canoe pawl 4 right.

At the crossing straight on, follow the sign "Giethoorn". At the crossing canoe pawl 8A sail straight on.

You are on the lake again, canoe pawl 9, go directly to the left and sail in the direction of the caravans. Pay attention to the fishing nets between the wooden pawls. Take the canal at pawl 5 to return to the village. At the end of this canal turn right. Pay attention! Give way to the boats coming from the left.

Just past the church turn to the left; at the end of this canal you are back at the point of departure.

This plan is owned by the company 't Zwaantje. An original plan is for sale at he boatshop.